A little bit about Harry...

Harry came to the centre via an inspector after his owner sadly passed away, poor Harry is absolutely traumatised by the whole experience. Harry is so upset at the moment and is feeling like his whole world has come crashing down on him, he spends all his time hiding away from the world. Harry needs very understanding adopters who will give him as much time and patience he needs to heal. Adopters will need a very secure spare room they can dedicate to Harry to help him settle back in to family life, he will need buckets of time and TLC and we are sure he will come round and make a great little addition to the home. It is so sad to see Harry here so we are hoping someone will open their heart to him and give him a chance of happiness once again. Harry will need an adult only home where he is to kept as a permanent house cat.
