A little bit about Jessica...

Jessica came to the centre via an inspector after he was abandoned by her previous owner so unfortunately we do not have any background information on her. She has found the whole ordeal quite overwhelming and has been left quite shell shocked by it. Jessica like to hide away and keep herself to herself for now, she is missing being in a home environment where it is quiet and calm. Jessica will need a patient and understanding adopter who will love her unconditionally, make her feel safe and cherish her like she deserves to be. We are in no doubt once she is settled in her new home she will make the most wonderful pet. Please do give her a chance. Jessica will need an adult only home where she is the only pet.
