A little bit about Mary...

Mary came to the centre via the local stray dog service. She is a very friendly girl with lots of character, energy and love to offer. Mary has not had much basic training before coming to the centre and gets a little over excited when greeting people and going on walks, we are working on this and she is coming on leaps and bounds. Mary is an enthusiastic learner and has so much potential to become the most fantastic addition to the family so long as her new adopters are happy to help her along the way. Sadly Mary came to the centre with a quite severe injury to her tail and ear, unfortunately despite vet treatment her tail was not able to be saved and we had to amputate it. Her ear required surgery but has since healed. Mary is a happy go lucky kind of girl who really has not had the best life up to now and abandoned when she needed them the most. She is now looking to a brighter future with a family of her very own who will love her unconditionally. Mary will need to be the only dog in an adult only home.
