A little bit about Mia...

Mia came to the centre as sadly her previous elderly owner could no longer keep her, she has been a much loved companion and is desperately missing being in a loving home. Mia is a very sweet but quite an independent cat who loves a fuss but also like her own space. She is used to a nice quiet home so she will be best suited to a home that is nice and quiet and not too busy. Mia was very shy and overwhelmed when she first arrived here at the centre, she is now settling and ready to find herself a loving new home. We would love to see Mia back in a home with a family who will love her as much as her previous owner did, she will need to be a permanent house cat in an adult only home where she is the only cat.

My personality...

I need to be the only cat

I need to be a permanent house cat

I need an adult only home

I love a cat nap
